Charge against Gov. Tilden.

York, Aug. 21.—The Times this morning remarkable editorial showing that Gov. Til- sworn in 1853 that his entire income the year 1862, from all sources liable to taxation, rents and profits, was only $7,918; he, in 1876, swears that during the same year, 1862, he received from two sources alone, his services to a single company, $20,000, by his own sworn admission. Therefore, Tilden stands indebted to the government in a considerable sum for unpaid income tax for 1862, and we have two statements by Tilden utterly inconsistent with each other. The Times proceeds to show other sources of revenue enjoyed by the Governor, and says he never returned any statement of his income except for two years, and was accused during other years the income tax law existed.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Speakership Vacant.

The New York Times' Washington special says the death of Kerr leaves the House of Representatives without a presiding officer. The clerk will call the House to order in December next, and will preside until a Speaker is chosen. A recent act passed by Congress contained a provision authorizing the clerk to sign warrants on the treasury to enable members to draw their salaries during recess.

Sub-Treasury Reports.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Reports received at the Treasury Department from the various sub-treasuries to the close of business yesterday show that the available balance in silver coin is reduced to $4,-615,012. Since the passage of the act authorizing the redemption of fractional currency in subsidiary coin, the total amount of such coin issued is $14,763,750. Of this amount $9,193,587 was for redemption of fractional currency, and $5,195,017 were for currency obligations at the several mints. There were at last accounts $1,828,440 in subsidiary coins of this amount about $100,000 was in 10 cent pieces at San Francisco, and will have to be recoined into halves and quarters, so that the available balance in subsidiary coins is less than three and a half millions of dollars. The following table shows the total amount paid out and balances on hand at various times: Paid out at Washington, $211,226; New York, $5,060,214; Boston, $2,345,087; Philadelphia, $1,580,847; St. Louis, $765,969; San Francisco, $190,832; New Orleans, 402,884; Charleston, $116,135; Baltimore, $845,444; Cincinnati, $1,092,477; Chicago, $1,393,849; Buffalo, $396,527; Pittsburg, $381,865. During the last fiscal year the National bank redemption agency received 14,111,135 pieces of money, the value of these pieces being over $210,000,000. Of these pieces, 2,963,964 pieces, worth $13,646,145, were uncurrent; $1,367,864, representing $97,478,700 were returned to the banks of issue, being considered fit for circulation, and about $25,000,000 were notes of failed and liquidating banks and banks reducing circulation. The counterfeits received and overlooked found on counting packages forwarded for redemption was $16,491 25, and the shorts, $16,175 26. Counterfeits discovered amounted to $5,218. In June, the amount received for redemption was nearly $24,000,000, which is the largest amount received in any one month since the agency has been established.

Tributes of Respect to the Late Speaker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The flags on the city buildings in this city and Brooklyn, to-day, were displayed at half mast out of respect to the memory of the late Speaker Kerr.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Vice President Ferry having received a dispatch from Mr. Clerk of the House of Representatives, stating he, with the body of Mr. Kerr, would arrive here to morrow morning, has delayed his departure for Michigan and will accompany the remains of the late Speaker to their last resting place at New Albany, Ind.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—When the remains of the late Speaker Kerr arrive here, Sergeant-at-Arms Thompson will take charge of them. He is in favor of having them lie in state one day in the capitol. Speaker Kerr, before leaving last night for Rock Bridge Alum Springs strongly favored such a course. This will depend much on the feeling of Mrs. Kerr in this respect.

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—The Journal's Washington special says: Alarmed at the advantage which the various soldiers' organizations are giving the Republicans, the Democratic managers have started a soldiers' veteran association with Gen. Hooker as president and Gen. Denver and Hall, ex-chairman of the executive committee, of which Gen. R. H. Mitchell and Representative A. S. Williams are also members. This committee are preparing an address showing what the House has done for the soldiers in the way of bounty, pension bills, etc., and have taken steps to hunt up and gather into their organization all soldiers who have Tilden's election at heart.

New Regulations for Wholesale Liquor Dealers.

By an act passed at a recent session of Congress the services of revenue gaugers at wholesale liquor dealers' establishments will be dispensed with on and after the 25th inst., and thereafter all packages of distilled spirits filled on the premises of a wholesale dealer will have to be stamped. The internal revenue departments will at once provide the collectors of internal revenue with the required stamps to be used by dealers, accompanied by instructions.

The 4½ Loan Negotiations Temporarily Suspended.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Owing to the illness today of Secretary Morrill, who was not at the Treasury Department, the negotiations for the placing of the 4½ per cent loan have been temporarily suspended. They will be resumed, however, as soon as the Secretary recovers from his indisposition. There is movement on foot in the Treasury to raise a pool in each of the several bureaus for the benefit of those who are to lose places by the contemplated reduction. The plan is to assess the employes of each bureau a stated amount the sum raised to be distributed among the discharged.

The Politicians at Work.

The Tribune's Washington special says both campaign committees are hard at work at the capitol putting up and sending off documents. Scores of gilders, posters and mailers fill the lower halls and corridors of the House wing, the government paying a good share of the expenses.

Mail Transportation Commission.

The Postmaster General will meet the commission appointed under the postoffice appropriation bill to investigate the subject of transportation of mails on railroads, at New York, this week. The names of the commission have not yet been made public, but the President said Saturday that he should appoint G. H. Hubbard of Massachusetts, and F. W. Palmer of Chicago, as members.

ATLANTIC CABLE.

Turkish War News.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 21.—The Greek Minister has presented a note to the Porte from the Greek Government demanding that Turkey grant the request of the Cretans, because their discontent is reaching the people of Greece.

Ali Sali Pasha is marching on Alexinatz simultaneously with Eyoule Pasha Alexinatz and Belgrade, it is expected, will surely fall.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—A special from Alexinatz, dated 18th, says Gen. Tchernayoff has received his headquarters to Deligrad, where he has massed with 30,000 men for a final stand. The abandonment of Alexinatz is contemplated.

A special from Berlin says it is stated that Gen. Tchernayoff's reports of a victory have changed the peaceful disposition of the Russian government. Even the Czar, confidently expecting favorable changes in the position of the Servians, has abandoned mediatory efforts. It is asserted that the Porte possesses undeniable proofs that the Russian consular agents have been inciting insurrection in Bulgaria.

BELGRADE, Aug. 21.—Since the cabinet council held here on Saturday last the peace party appears to have gained ground, and an early conclusion of an armistice is therefore probable. Fighting was proceeding all day yesterday in the direction of Alexinatz. No official account of the result has yet been communicated from which it is apprehended the Servians were worsted.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—A special to the Daily Telegraph asserts that Prince Milan, in spite of the war party, received the communications of England with considerable favor, and is personally inclined to appeal to the powers for mediation.

Important Battle.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—A telegram from Semlin says 40,000 Turks, Keron Pasha commanding, met the Servians between Supovatz and Alexinatz, on Sunday. They made several attacks but were everywhere repulsed. On one wing the Servian army even successfully assumed the offensive. The battle was renewed Monday. It is considered probable the Servians will fall back to Alexinatz, and a decisive battle will be fought there. If the Servians win that fight the war will be continued; if the Turks are victorious the Servians will be willing to conclude peace. Turkish official dispatches from Nissa report that the Ottoman forces defeated the Servians near Alexinatz, and occupied their positions, adding that the Servian losses were considerable.

Financial Crisis in Portugal.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The financial crisis in Portugal originated in the failure of some banks in Oporto, and is a revival of the crisis there in May last, when some weak banks were assisted by stronger institutions, and when the government also advanced money. Bills then discounted for the weak banks have now run their course, and as their position is unimproved, the stronger banks refuse to renew the bills. It is expected a large amount of sovereigns which have gone from the bank of England will restore confidence.

Killed by Lightning.

PARIS, Aug. 21.—Deputy Camille Claude, Republican was killed by lightning yesterday.

Emperor of Morocco in Straitened Circumstances.

The Emperor of Morocco has declared his inability to send his customary subsidy to the Sultan of Turkey, owing to a heavy strain on his resources, caused by suppressions of disturbances in his own dominions.

Disraeli's Farewell Address.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—Disraeli has issued a farewell address to his constituents, the electors of Buckinghamshire, by whom he has been returned to the House of Commons continuously since 1847. He says: Throughout my public life I have arrived at two chief results. Not insensible to the principle of progress, I have endeavored to reconcile change with that respect for tradition which is the main element of our social strength and internal affairs. I have endeavored to develop and strengthen the empire, believing that combinations of achievement and responsibility elevate the character and condition of the people.

Overtures of Peace.

VIENNA, Aug. 21.—A special from Belgrade to the Political Correspondence states overtures were made to Servia to-day by the diplomatic agents of England, France, Italy and the three great powers looking to negotiations for peace.

Liverpool Grain Market.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 21.—Wheat is steady at 9s per cental for No. 1 spring; 8s 2d for No. 1 red; winter steady at 9s. Receipts of wheat the past week from Atlantic ports, 4,000 quarters; Pacific ports, 3,000; other sources, 4,850. Receipts of corn, 55,000.

European Crop Prospects.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The Mark Lane Express says harvesting is now well commenced. Numerous reports from various parts of the Kingdom have arrived. Some prognosticate that the crop will be light; others speak of a fair, or even good, average yield. These statements must be received with caution, as the averages in different localities vary from 3½@7 quarters per acre, whereas, statistically speaking, 80 bushels is usually considered a standard. Barley and beans are likely to turn out well. Peas give satisfaction in most districts. Oats are reported to be the worst of all. Trade has been very dull owing to the uncertainty as to the yield of home crops and foreign supplies. We think the latter will be large since India is exporting very freely. Although the rep rts of the California crop may have been exaggerated, production of millers for the former class of grain is still dominant. Maize continues in request, especially for forward delivery, as the quantity afloat is now considerably diminished. Oats have slightly improved, owing to the increase of the Continent demand.

CANADA.

Fire.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 21.—A fire last night destroyed almost the entire business portion of this town, with a number of dwellings. Loss, $100,000, partially insured.

A fire at Brussels destroyed English's carriage factory and other property; loss, $60,000.

State Democratic Club.

A meeting of prominent Democrats was held in the mayor's office yesterday evening, for the purpose of considering the formation of a State Democratic club, to be a permanent feature of the party. Gov. Irwin and other prominent gentlemen were present. The organization of the State club was not perfected, but it is expected that at the next meeting officers will be elected. The matter of starting a morning newspaper of Democratic proclivities was generally discussed, and it was agreed that the party had great need of an organ, and preliminary steps towards its establishment will be taken at an early day.

National Gold Bank and Trust Co. vs D. W. C. Thompson et al, Answer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—In the suit of the National Gold Bank and Trust Co. against D. W. C. Thompson et al, brought to recover from Thompson's bondsmen a balance alleged to be due from him as cashier, the defendants have filed an answer to the complaint in the 12th district court. They deny all the allegations of the plaintiffs and charge certain malfeasances on the part of the directors; that they appropriated $350,000 of the bank's money to their own use and refused to return it between August 25th and October 30th of 1875, when the bank was greatly in need of funds, and that that was the real cause of the bank's suspension; that they took large amounts of the best assets of the bank from the vaults on the night following the suspension to secure themselves and their friends, and a long list of other irregular and illegal proceedings.

Preparations for a Vigorous Campaign.

Advices at the Republican headquarters show that the work of organizing for the campaign is going on actively—at present 132 clubs are in a state of vigorous existence. By the 1st of September 150 will have been formed, and by the 1st of October 50 more will be added to the list. Senator Morton will speak to California audiences in October. Burrows, of Michigan, will also take the stump in this State. Prominent among other speakers who are pledged to give their services in the campaign are Gen. Miller, Senator Sargent, Geo. C. Gorham, M. M. Estee, Senator Jones, Henry Edgerton, J. F. Swift, Gov. Pacheco, Gov. Woods, Senator Booth, Gov. Saloman, J. F. Cowdery, J. McM. Shafter, C. B. Denio, J. J. DeHaven and Rev. Dr. Cox. The campaign will begin regularly on the 11th of September. It is thought the opening campaign speech will be made next Thursday evening by John F. Swift. Senator Booth will enter the lists about the end of October.

Dishonest P. O. Clerk Detected and Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—For some time past it has been known to the postoffice authorities that registered letters were being tampered with, and a portion of the valuables they contained extracted. A strict watch was set on those engaged in the service throughout the State, and the delinquency was finally traced to the San Francisco postoffice. For weeks Postmaster Coey has been busily at work trying to detect the culprit, and about $1,000 has passed through the registration department in decoy letters for that purpose. On Friday afternoon a decoy letter containing nine $5 gold notes, addressed to Umatilla, Oregon, was mailed at the registry office. A watch was also placed on the clerks engaged in that department, which resulted in the arrest at 11 o'clock Friday night of Jas. Bowman, one of the registry clerks, by Capt. Stone, on a charge of robbing the mails. Seven of the $5 gold notes were found in Bowman's possession; two had been spent during the evening, one of which was found and identified as the note which Bowman gave in exchange for goods. Bowman had been in the postoffice seven or eight years. He was formerly a member of the legislature, and no suspicion rested on him until recently. During Friday evening, Bowman drank considerable and talked freely, and finally consented to show his money when asked to do so. On Saturday morning, H. McCartney, who had been employed to mail the decoys taken at the registry office, swore out a complaint before Commissioner O'Beirne. Bowman was brought before the commissioner the same day, but waived an examination and charge. He is almost broken down under the blow of disgrace and protests his innocence, but the proofs of his guilt are apparently overwhelming. The arrest has caused great commotion in postal circles.

Bogus Coin Manufacturer Arrested.

C. H. Mohring, manufacturer of California gold dollars, has been indicted by the U. S. grand jury for counterfeiting. He gave bonds to day for his appearance when wanted, for trial in the sum of $2,500 and was released from custody. It is reported that other manufacturers of this bogus coin will join Mohring and mate this a ten case.

Sailor Drowned.

The schooner Norwester, which arrived in port to-day, reports that Jacob Fisher, a native of Holland, jumped overboard on the 12th instant, while the vessel was off North Farralone, and while he was laboring under delirium tremens, and was drowned.

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

GOSSIP OF THE GOLDEN CITY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 14, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Another week has slipped away almost imperceptibly as I find myself sitting down to my task of collecting materials for another screed for your subscribers. San Francisco of to-day is a very different looking place from the San Francisco of twenty-three years ago, when I first landed here. Then it was merely the emporium for the placer mines that have long since mingled their soil with the sea. Now it is a great manufacturing city, and overhung with a cloud of smoke from Monday to Saturday. The men of the long-tom era have nearly all passed away, and most of the survivors are poor and needy. The moving spirits of this day are men who were barkeepers, coal-heavers and draymen when I came here, while many of the wealthiest are adventurers who came here from Salt Lake and Montana in time to strike the big bonanza at the turn of the tide and unload at the last of the flood.

THE FINANCIAL SENSATION

Of the past week has been the indisposition of Mr. Demetrius D. Schofield, a neat-looking youth of some thirty summers, who is confined to his bed by an attack of brain (?) fever. He is a member of the Pacific Board of Brokers, and until a year ago was a clerk in a coal-oil store, at $125 a month. Week before last he was the Ursa Major on Consolidated Virginia, selling that stock "short," and creating a panic by which many gibs became uncovered and the savings of hundreds were swept away in a day. When stocks went up he tried to borrow to fill his "shorts," and gave his checks to Callaghan & Lynch for $60,000. Berry, Wolfskill & Co. for nearly as much more, and Harris, Hart & Co. for some $40,000. These checks were proven valueless on presentation, and the young man is now in bed waiting for a compromise. This brokerage business is one that requires severe legislation as to personal liability. The brokers are entrenched behind too many special privileges for the good of the community. Suppose I had gone to Shreve's or Vanderslice's and bought a $250 watch and chain, and given them a check on a bank in which I had no funds, do you suppose that I would be allowed to stay in my room? Not a bit of it. I would be sent to jail and it would serve me right. "Sauce for the gander" is what should be served out to every man that "gives them the goose." A swindler is a swindler, and should be dealt with as such. I do not mean to say all brokers are swindlers, for I know many of them to be just and honorable men; but I know there are men in each of the three Boards who would stop a stage if necessity compelled it. Last year a broker's clerk was

SENT TO SAN QUENTIN

For stealing stock from his employer, but nothing was ever done with his confederate, who was a broker and put the poor boy up to the dishonest and ungrateful trick. This same scamp inveigled two young men of your place into operations with him, in which he fleeced them unmercifully, and was exposed by the News Letter for his frauds. Charley Kuchel was a thief beyond doubt, and was rightly punished, but I cannot see the propriety of his wearing striped clothes at San Quentin while half a dozen others I can name are walking California street in broadcloth. The only way to cover the case is to compel brokers to deposit heavy indemnities with the Comptroller of State, as insurance companies are obliged to do. That would reduce the number of brokers about 60 per cent, and restrict the business to a class of men who are content to behave honorably.

DOMESTIC INFELICITY

Is all the rage at present, the courts having disposed of only forty-four divorce cases in the past week. Among them is the case of Mr. D. E. Still, who was unhinged from Mrs. Still because she was addicted to overbearing herself, and wouldn't be still when she got her peppermint aboard. The court gave her wisser half a chance to walk off on his connubial auricular, and get another lady to do his mangling and button-sewing. The scrupulous dame can also go on the war path in search of another man to pay for her "Boca," and say, in the perverted language of a distinguished English poet:

"Bourbon, with all thy faults, I love thy still"

The next most remarkable case was that of a young mechanic, whose wife had sued for a divorce and the possession of their only child. In evidence it was shown that they had been married four years and had always got along well enough until last March, when she, being enciente at the time, went on a visit to a married sister who persuaded her to take medicine and procure an abortion. Well, the poor woman did so, and, from being stout and healthy, is now almost a wreck. The judge decided that a woman who could willfully destroy her off-spring before birth was not fit custodian for those that were already born. He therefore granted the divorce, but awarded the custody of the child to the father, granting the mother permission to visit the boy once per week.

SPORTING MATTERS.

The forthcoming trot between the stallion Dan Voorhees, and the Eastern horse St. Julien, creates great excitement in turf circles. The latter has largely the call in the betting among well posted men, for he has trotted in 2:20¾, while the California stud's best record is 2:23½. At the bar of the Grand Hotel last Friday night, an inebriated gentlemen from Los Angeles, offered to bet $5,000 that Voorhees would win the race, and soon found a clinch for his proposition. The acceptor put up $500 in gold notes against the Southerner's check for a like amount, and the remaining sum of $4,500 a side was to be put up at noon the next day. The hour came and with it, the man of San Francisco, but not he from the vineyard city. When 1 o'clock arrived the stake-holder declared the $500 check to have been forfeited and the lucky man presented it at the bank, where its payment was refused on the ground that it had been signed when the drawer was drunk. Yesterday the winner of the forfeit went out to Jack Gamble's to breakfast and there met the "crawfisher," who put up his watch and three diamond studs worth $1,500 to escape a cowhiding. This morning the $500 was paid and that let out the Los Angeles man from betting any more. Had he been, decoyed into the affair I would have thought very differently of it, but as he persistently followed gentlemen about, daring them to bet even when odds were current, I can only regard it as another case where a fool and his money are soon parted."

THE BILLIARD FEVER

Came to an end on last Saturday night in the way of a match (so-called) between George F. Slosson and Maurice Daly, for $500 a side. There is no man living who could make me believe that they were playing for one single dollar. In the first place, the forfeits of $200 a side were put up in my hands, but having no place of my own to keep the money, I declined the barren honor and suggested the cashier of Jacob Sraible & Co. as a more suitable person to receive the money. Daly put up his own money $220 in greenbacks, while a friend of Slosson put up four gold notes of $50 each, one of which had been torn into and spliced with white paper. Two hours later I was in a billiard saloon where a dispute ensued as to the merits of the players, and Slosson's backer pulled out the identical roll of gold notes, and vainly offered to bet them on the match. Three nights after this a friend sent me after some gold notes to fill a remittance of $1,200. The broker's offices being closed, I went to the stakeholder of this match and offered gold coin for the notes, but was politely informed they had none. When the game was played, a thousand dollars in gold was displayed upon the table. Daly played behind for about twelve innings, when he put on the steam and made a run of 153, and Slosson subsided within himself like a well-greased telescope. Daly followed up with three runs of 44, 48 and 51, and beat the Chicago pet 240 points. Garnier has already gone East, and Daly and Sexton leave here tomorrow by way of Panama.

LORD DUFFERIN

And his Countess, accompanied by a select party of friends, arrived here last Wednesday and left for Victoria on Saturday morning on the English war steamer Amethyst which had been sent here for that purpose. The vice-regal party domiciliated at Palace Hotel, and Lord Dufferin's first remark to Leland was: "I say, miboy, this is an L of a house." The Countess is said by those who met her here, to be an exceedingly pleasant lady, whose unpretentious manners showed some of the shoddyites under Mr. Sharon's glass roof that the most distinguished trait of greatness is modesty. The visit of an enlightened gentleman like Lord Dufferin can do no harm to the great Northwest. On the contrary, it will lead to legislation which cannot fail to benefit British Columbia and indirectly help Washington Territory and Oregon. There is nothing of "haw haw" style about the Earl. He is a plain, sensible gentleman, with a good supply of what you Webfoot philosophers call "hard horse sense." That the Amethyst may have a pleasant voyage and a safe return is my heartfelt wish, for one.

STRANGE RUMORS.

It is said that the Ides of August always bring disasters to the holders of the fictitious wealth which comes from silver mines. Just a year ago, Ralston committed suicide in consequence of transactions that would not bear scrutiny, and now it is said that the two bonanza statesmen who represent the little rotten borough of Nevada in the United States Senate, are in big misery. Sharon talks of closing the Palace Hotel just as soon as the summer tide of Eastern visitors shuts off for the season, and will disband the Freedmen's bureau of waiters that congregate thereabouts. Even now the house does not begin to pay expenses. The time was when the little brandy-nosed man with bristled mustache controlled the entire stock market here, but now Baldwin, Mackey and Flood laugh at him as the proprietor of more than one white elephant. As for Jones, it is well known that he was a partner in many of Ralston's unsuccessful ventures, and got badly "cinched" in speculations in the New York gold market. The Panamint humbug lightened him and Bill Stewart, of Little Emma notoriety, of not less than $400,000 apiece. His Santa Monica railroad and wharf are mortgaged for more than they are worth. His Hanmam bath house, conducted by Dr. Archimides Loryea, has cost him over $90,000, including the doctor's tour of the Bosphorus, in which he hobnobbed with Abdul Assiz and laughed in his sleeve at the Assiz who hail sent him thither. The Evening Post newspaper cost Jones over $45,000, and it hardly pays expenses. It is said that he will be here next week to explain matters to the holders of some papers, the nature of which is designated by the third, fourth and fifth vowels in the alphabet.

YACHT RACING

Will be revived in a few days, the whole squadron participating. Most of the yachts in the New York clubs are owned by one person, but here nearly every yacht has two or more owners. The keel of a new schooner yacht is being laid for ex-Gov. Pacheco and his friends, to cost $28,000. (By the way, Pacheco is nominated for Congress and will surely be elected. It is only a question of majority.) If a "fellah" could only live fifty years, to see a city of 150,000 people on the Columbia river and another of like size on Puget Sound, you would then see some yacht-racing on the vast inland sea where old Seattle and his warlike gang went forth in their hundred canoes, the Thebans of the wilderness. Imagine a dozen yachts, owned respectively by San Francisco, Portland, Astoria and Seattle, rounding the outer stake-boat off Port Townsend, bowling along past the barren promontory of Alki and dashing from their prows the boiling tide-rips of Point Defiance, or anchoring on the lee beach of Vashon for a clam-bake. That scene will yet be witnessed with rapture, though not perhaps by my eyes. No other country in the world can show such a yacht club course as Puget Sound. One hundred and ten miles of smoother and deeper water than New York Bay would delight a Stevens or Forbes, but our people don't appreciate it, much to the regret of KILDONAN.

DECISION IN U. S. DISTRICT COURT BY JUDGE DEADY.

In the matter of the application of Frank M. Tompkins, Nathan E. Hanson, Wm. H. Bramlette and John W. White, for a pardon.

In August, 1872, the petitioners were found guilty in the District Court of the crime of robbing one Ad. Elder—the carrier of the U. S. mail—by putting his life in jeopardy on July 12, 1872, at Antelope Canyon, in Wasco county and State of Oregon. On November 6 of the same year, a motion for a new trial was overruled and the petitioners sentenced to imprisonment for life. The evidence upon which they were found guilty—except Bramlette—was circumstantial, but the witnesses to the facts were persons of unquestioned integrity, and the verdict found in a few minutes after the retirement of the jury. In the course of the trial no attempt was made to fix the crime upon any one but the petitioners, nor did it appear in any way that the public opinion of the vicinage pointed to any one but them as the perpetrators of it. The country for many miles around the scene of the robbery is rough, wild and sparsely settled. The principal petitioner—Tompkins—lived within 20 or 30 miles of the place, where he held a stock ranch and followed the business of a rancher and head of stock. He appeared to be an active, resolute man—somewhat of a party man and local leader—with a reputation of being both lawless and violent. The other petitioners lived with or about Tompkins at the time, and were persons of little note or reputation.

The present application for a pardon, as appears by the copy of the petition and papers left at my chambers by Mr. Moreland—the attorney for the petitioners—is based upon the affidavits of the petitioners and the notes of the testimony of T. D. Phelps and Frank Johnson, given on the examination of Milton Shepardson in February, 1876, before Ralph Wilcox, U. S. Commissioner, upon a charge of having in conjunction with said Phelps and one Charles Darnell, committed the robbery for which the petitioners were convicted as above. Since then Phelps, Darnell and Shepardson have been indicted and the latter tried upon this charge.

In what is said in this opinion upon the merits of this application the proceedings and result in Shepardson's case, will be taken into consideration.

The indictment against Shepardson being found almost four years after the commission of the robbery, by way of avoiding the effect of the statute of limitations, which barred a prosecution for the crime after two years, from its commission, it contained an allegation to the effect that Shepardson had left the district and fled from justice in the year 1873. Upon the trial it appeared beyond a question that Shepardson did not flee from justice at all, but that in the fall of 1873 he was removed from Oregon to California upon the requisition of the Governor of the latter State where he was tried and finally acquitted upon a charge of robbing the express of Wells, Fargo & Co. Upon this event of the case the court instructed the jury that they must find the defendant "not guilty" because the prosecution was barred by lapse of time.

But it also appearing that Shepardson was really indicted and prosecuted for the purpose of establishing the innocence of the petitioners rather than his own guilt, the court further instructed the jury to find specially whether or not Shepardson did in conjunction with Phelps and Darnell rob the carrier of the mail at Antelope Canyon on July 12, 1872, as alleged in the indictment. The jury found the defendant "not guilty," and answered the question as to his participation in the robbery in the affirmative. Upon the trial the counsel for the petitio

The Daily Oregonian.

TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 22, 1876.

WHAT OREGONIANS SHOULD DO.

While waiting for a railroad to be built connecting the State with the East, Oregonians should exert themselves to the utmost to be able to make the most profit out of the advantages they shall then enjoy. More land should be cleared, more grain and flax grown, more cattle, sheep and hogs raised, more manufactories established, and the resources of the country in every way developed to the utmost, so that when the tide of immigration sets in, strangers with capital may find opportunities for investment, and strangers without any other means than their pluck skill and muscle may be encouraged to take hold and thrive as those who came before them had thrived. Do not be discouraged because prices fall a little. Wheat can always be grown in the State, at least in most parts of it, at a profit, and the more there is to sell the more money there will be to come in. Every ten or twelve thousand bushels of surplus wheat will attract a ship to our shores to carry away either the grain or, better still, the flour manufactured here from it. In place of the twenty or thirty ships which now arrive here, twice or thrice that number might come, to the manifest and great advantage of the State.

The cost of raising cattle and sheep in some parts of the State is so little that beef on the hoof is now not worth more than a very few cents a pound, and except for their wool, sheep are hardly worth anything. This low price makes it possible to can beef for exportation and send it to Europe with great profit. When the hoped-for influx of population comes, beef and mutton may find a readier and more profitable sale here; but in the meantime, while we are waiting, our vast herds may be utilized in this way. The same "plant" which is employed at certain seasons in canning salmon might be employed in the winter months in putting up beef. Thus no time would be lost and no extra expense in erecting durable establishments incurred. The abundance, excellence and cheapness of hemlock bark as tanning material, would make it an easy as well as a profitable matter to manufacture excellent leather from hides, which are now exported unmanufactured, and from the leather, which would be cheap and abundant, as and saddlery which we now import to a great extent, might be made. By this means all the profits arising from this important business would be made by citizens of the State, and not be given to others.

Wool is already manufactured to some extent; but that industry might be largely increased, and if the present quality of the goods manufactured should be no better maintained, it would secure for them a large and ready sale.

The cheapness of cattle, too, should encourage the manufacture of butter and cheese on a large scale. If the present race of cows do not belong to the dairy kind, the enterprise of a few of our citizens in importing some of the best cattle in the world, renders it easy to grade up the common cattle and improve them very much. The humid climate, even temperature, cool nights and unequaled grasses of this region make it eminently suitable for butter and cheese producing country. These articles could and should be exported largely to the Sandwich Islands, Central America and Asia.

Many bands of horses might be raised at the very least possible expense in Eastern Oregon, driven eastward and sold at a profit. In fact, there is no reason why the best and soundest horses on the continent should not come from Eastern Oregon, the soil as such as to make the feet of all horses raised there strong and sound; the climate is healthy, disease is almost unknown, and the lay of the land is such that in racing over the hills and valleys the colts learn to bend their knees and become sure footed and active. It would, perhaps, take a long time to gain for Oregon horses the reputation and prestige which make Kentucky horses sell so well in New York; we might never be able to compete with that State in the market on even terms, if it were desirable, but large, strong, fine, active horses will always bring a good price and make a good name for the region where they are are raised.

Ship building is another industry to which with great advantage and much profit attention might be turned. Instead of employing foreign bottoms to carry our Oregon-built ships could be used. That first-class ships can be built on this coast no one now can doubt.

By thus employing every means for developing the resources of the State and augmenting its wealth, capitalists will be stimulated to build railroads so that they may compete for the traffic of so flourishing and thriving a community and intending immigrants will be irresistibly attracted by the activity, enterprise and energy of the people and the abundant prosperity of the State.

TUNNELING THE ENGLISH CHANNEL.

The scheme for tunneling the English channel is by no means a recent one. As far back as 1750, a French engineer submitted a plan for cutting a subterraneous passage from England to the continent. Again in 1802 the idea was broached, and again in 1858. The plan proposed then was to cut a tunnel which should be ventilated and partially lighted by means of shafts sunk from artificial islands which were to be made in the channel by throwing over stone in sufficient quantities. This plan was rejected on account of the necessity for shafts, which were considered impracticable, and, if practicable, dangerous.

In 1867, after the success of the Mont Cenis tunnel, which penetrates the Alps between Italy and France, and is eight miles long without a single shaft, became a matter of certainty, an English engineer conceived the bold idea of boring straight through the bed of chalk which underlies the bed of the channel, and submitted a plan therefor which met with a favorable reception from both the French and English governments, and an international company was organized for carrying out the enterprise. The depth of water over the line of the proposed tunnel varies from 63 feet to 130 and 175 feet. The bed of chalk is from 430 feet to 700 feet thick. In order to avoid the danger of water rushing in the tunnel, it will be necessary to make the tunnel below all the fissures in the chalk through which the water might percolate. This depth is estimated at about 350 feet below the level of the water. The length of the tunnel with its approaches will be 38 miles, and its cost about $50,000,000. As the material—chalk—to be pierced is very soft, as compared with rock, the process of tunneling will, it is thought, proceed with great rapidity. There will be no necessity for using explosive agencies. The chalk can be bored and crumbled into fragments by a machine similar to that which was used in the Mont Cenis tunnel.

The roughness of the channel passage is such that few persons would prefer it to a railway trip. The journey from London to Calais could be made by rail in perfect comfort in five or six hours, and all the horrors of sea sickness avoided. Hence it is believed that the passenger traffic of the proposed line would be quite sufficient to ensure the entire financial success of the scheme.

Mr. Newell, well known under the nom de plume of Orpheus C. Kerr, it is said, has swallowed no solid food for more than a month. He says he not only has no appetite, but is unable to force solid food down his throat. He takes coffee, milk punches and smokes cigars, but beyond this in the way of taking nourishment he can not go. He is fearfully emaciated and his weight is only 102 pounds, although he is five feet ten inches tall and well built. The doctors are unable to do anything for him, all remedies having failed to act. Mr. Newell is bright and cheerful and perfectly conscious of his perilous condition. He is still able to take some exercise, but his strength is rapidly failing and the greatest fears are felt for his life.

The degree of faith and trust which may be felt in the promises and assurances of the noble savage is well illustrated by the action of the Utes, who were feasted, equipped and armed with excellent weapons on their promise to co operate with the government forces against the hostile Sioux. As soon as they received all they thought themselves likely to get, the whole band, with the exception of twenty-seven, deserted. No doubt they intended to do this from the beginning. A good deal better disposition of the arms could have been made than to give them to the Indians.

SHOULD SILVER BE A LEGAL TENDER?

PORTLAND, Aug. 21, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I suggested in your columns, the other morning, that the next legislature should make U. S. silver coin a full legal tender. I did this because I believe it to be for the general good that the currency of a country be of that kind, which will, in the nature of things, be of general circulation. I would oppose making diamonds only, a legal tender, because the scarcity of the article is so great that it would impede trade, and besides it would breed shaving and discounts by brokers and money-sharps. And so, for like reasons, I would oppose making gold an exclusive legal tender. Let us have for the currency of the country something that the poor and rich both can obtain without paying brokers a discount. Nor do I see how the making of silver a full legal tender would be playing into the hands of rogues, as a correspondent suggests. Of course, no such law could affect contracts previously made, nor would it effect contracts subsequently made for gold coin. Then where is the chance for roguery? Silver would be the coin to be paid and received, where no other was stipulated, and everybody would calculate on that basis. Nor would such a law drive gold from the country more than now. Then you could get gold if you wanted it, by paying the premium—just exactly what you have to do now. Such a law as I suggest would neither affect the relative values of gold and silver or their ebb and flow here; it would simply be providing, as the currency of our people, what is easily to be obtained, and that too without brokers' shave. And such a law we ought to have. CATO.

In the speech of Hon. Jefferson P. Kidder, of Dakota, made in Congress July 29th, advocating the organization of the Territory of Pembina, we are told that the proposed new Territory will contain 72,930 square miles. It will extend from the seventh standard parallel, which is about eleven miles south of the forty-sixth degree to the British Possessions, from the Red river of the North to the Yellowstone. It has within its borders 600 miles of navigable waters on the Red river, more than 600 on the Missouri, and over 300 on the Yellowstone, and in all over 2,000 miles of navigable waters. Lines of steamers and 200 miles of railroad are already operated in the proposed Territory, and numerous extensions are projected. The population of Peiubina is not less than 12,000, largely made up of farmers, and the country has superior agricultural advantages.

The Olympian says: "Messrs. Williams, Blanchard & Co., the San Francisco agents of the Pacific Mail Company, have instructed their Olympia agents, Messrs. Crosby & Lowe, to invite correspondence of our people with a view of encouraging new industries and creating a remunerative field for the resources which remain dormant only for the want of an incentive to assist their development."

It seems the illustrious Pierrepont, before leaving for London, consulted a spiritualist in New York as to his pedigree, in descent of one "Lady Mary," who died about 100 years ago. A shorter way would have been to consult the town records of North Haven, where he was born. His father was a poor but worthy farmer, and he was christened, we are told, "Munson Pierpont."—New Haven Register

About eleven years ago the last cannibal feast was held in Kandavu, one of the Fiji Islands. The remains of the pits in which the bodies were burned are still to be seen, and the "chairman" at the banquet is not only alive, but has the honor to represent on the island, in an official capacity, Her Majesty Queen Victoria.

Pendleton is preparing to take the stump for Tilden, whom he opposed so bitterly before the nomination. When asked why, his response is: "Because of my admiration for a man who made millions out of bankrupt railroads while I pocketed less than one hundred thousand."

[PATENTED]

MAGNUM BONUM SHIRTS!

For sale by

FISHEL & ROBERTS,

Cor. First and Washington Sts.

THESE SHIRTS FULLY BEAR OUT THEIR name, and are regarded by all who have worn them to be par excellence of Shirts. The arrangement of making the Magnum Bonum, on which the Patent has been granted, is simply that of closing the side of the shirt all the way down to bottom of hem, and that of having the shirt opened in the center of the front and back about seven inches from the bottom hem. The undeniable advantages are briefly: It covers the legs and hips and does not work up uncomfortably. It is an ordinary shirt; it always keeps in place, not only around the bosom but on the back; it does not contain any surplus material, and can be folded smoothly and laid away without creasing. It is the most convenient shirt for traveling by rail, carriage or horseback because it works all the cloth downward in each drawer leg. It is manufactured from the very best material, and is bound to supersede all other styles of shirts in use.

A simple trial of this Shirt will prove to the wearer all that is claimed for it.

For sale exclusively by FISHEL & ROBERTS, The Leading Clothiers in Oregon.

CITY.

LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS —One day last week Mr Tongue of Washington county a young lad named Woods were out hunting berries in the mountains back of Quicksand, the latter in endeavoring to reach Mr Tongue's camp by a cut-off became bewildered and wandered in the woods for forty eight hours when he reached camp fatigued and hungry. The lad as being lost but returned next day. On the Tualatin Plains and began harvesting, the third day a lady who knew something of the failure of the boy to put in an appearance made inquiries and learned to the surprise of many that nothing had been heard of him whereabouts. Immediately began a search and some time the boy was seen else to the road by Mr Lafferty's farm but as his discovery approached him he showed an inclination to put for the woods again He was finally captured and placed on a horse and taken to Mr Lafferty's mill. When asked where he had been he said that during the first night he had slept in a hollow log and the second night in the side of a log but since that time he had no recollection of time and could not give any further information relative to his wanderings. The people in that vicinity severely censure the action of Mr Tongue in not reporting the boy lost and in language more forcible than polite, intimate they will give him a suitable reception should he come that way.

BRAVE FELLOWS —In yesterday morning's issue we mentioned the fact that four of the printing compositors connected with the Herald had provided themselves with ammunition and fishing tackle, and had gone to one of the many sequestered spots in Washington county to enjoy a few days sport in hunting and fishing As the whole world knows the woods in that region abound in game from the beautiful deer to the aniered monarch of the glen, and streams are alive with the most delicious trout, so that we really expected to see our friends return loaded down with various trophies of forest nature We even offered a prayer for their safe return Our anxiety was relieved by, however, for yesterday they returned and claim their own reward Brave fellows! They didn't see any quail nor grouse but "nits no bar" crossed their path and we opine to the opinion that the boys must have had drunk his fill without the aid of, at least, from our printer boys did not some mention about four dozen quail we think they still remain in the woods. To return empty handed after so much time spent and expense incurred to say nothing of the "small talk" indulged in the sanctum sacks is simply ridiculous Exit printers!

SALEM LETTER.

SALEM Aug 21 1876

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

After a continuance of several days of threatening weather we were refreshed on Saturday last with a copious shower of about one half hour's duration which settled the dust and left our road in splendid condition

To day we noticed a number of teams from various localities and to morrow the most of them will depart for their homes The festivities, so far as necessary are over We had a shower of rain this afternoon which dampened the enthusiasm of a great many travelers

Business has been very lively lately and Astoria seems unlike her former self The town has improved a great deal in the last year new buildings have been erected, where stood old tenements have put in operation and many other important essentials added to it would be a much desired improvement to have lights along the roadways leading to the streets At present there is a great lack of illumination in this regard Pedestrians would have less fear then when traveling at night to the boats

Astorians treat visitors very hospitably generally and with the exception of some disappointments and disappointments is astonished by shopkeepers every body visiting here has an enjoyable time

ALONG THE RIVER

Forest fires are numerous

All of the fisheries have suspended, as the catches now a days don't pay expenses

As much fish was taken this year as last, but it was owing to the presence of new fisheries and not particularly to the 'run' of the salmon

The other day a number of gamblers came down on one of the river steamers and fleeced certain unsophisticated ones during the trip One young man who left home contrary to his pas wishes, was so unfortunate as to lose $40 Another 'green 'un,' who was drawn into one of their "tricks," lost about $25 a silver watch and chain and (poor dupe!) on promise that his watch would be restored he agreed to meet his obliging (?) friends at night some place after the boat landed We did not learn the sequel. They bought a dear experience others may profit

Brownsport begins to loom up as a town and fishery Nearly one million pounds of canned salmon was to-day shipped from Glenora to Messrs Dodge, Sweeny & Co, San Francisco It is expected several new fisheries will be erected before the next season

A FISHERMEN'S LICENSE, BALL, ETC

Cathlamet last Sunday witnessed a day of merriment and the occasion was a fishermen's picnic Early in the forenoon the crowd commenced gathering, constantly augmenting and by noon the party was all present The company of fishermen with their fairer girls friends and guests marched to a grove near the town and engaged in various recreations and every body spent the time as desired After the sports of the day were over the people returned to town and in the evening a ball was given in a hall which was well attended The East Portland band furnished the music for the occasion It is a matter of opinion whether the picnic would have been enjoyed better on some other day A row occurred in the Bonanza saloon some time during the day in which a man named Cummins literally had a "head put on him" by some of his genial (?) pro demonstrative companions

WAVES

The Dalles had bad luck for awhile Their boat broke loose at Hwaco, and was dashed on the beach and damaged The boys repaired her however and happily as a clam sailed to Astoria and got insured there and when their sick passengers last heard from them they were slowly approaching Portland, hitched to a tug

Last Monday evening that energetic G W C P Dunbar organized a juvenile temperance society at this place

Gen O O Howard Capt Wilkinson Maj Boyle and other gentlemen of the army have been visiting this section of Uncle Samuel's domain The general visited and inspected the two forts at the mouth of the Columbia river

An excursion to Fort Canby Hwaco and other places of interest is being worked up by a city Good for the lodge

It was rumored that some Indians had a lively squabble this evening down street but no particulars were learned

Sheriff Twight will come up Monday with Messrs Burk and Matheson and Mrs McCormick to take them to the penitentiary It is said by eminent lawyers and jurists that the speech of Mrs McCormick was a surprising thing and many were unaware what eloquence and pleading powers the woman possessed

The future progress of this city cannot be doubted Many persons are anxious to believe that Astoria will some day outstrip Portland while some doubt it We have no room for such howsundever

Eliminate the Impurities of the System.

It is easy to do this through the instrumentality of the scorching, blood defiant and alterative Hostetter's Stomach Bitters which in its thorough, safe action The only medicine you need to purify, vitalize and renovate your system and restore it to perfect health Be sure to get the genuine article which is sold by druggists and dealers generally Don't be persuaded to take any of the vile whiskey compounds recommended by interested parties who want to sell their own trash Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the only remedy that will cure you

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY FOR THE RELIEF OF THE AFFLICTED

The Surgeons of the National Surgical Institute located in Indianapolis Pacific Division Alhambra Building Bush street San Francisco have yielded to the many urgent appeals from their patrons and friends in Oregon and Washington Territory and adjoining regions to revisit Portland The former visit was highly satisfactory and encouraging many of the patients then accepted for treatment being, now entirely cured, while nearly all are greatly benefited and in a fair way of recovery Three or more of the Surgeons will be at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in Portland Oregon from Monday the 28th day of August until Saturday, the 23 September 1876 six days inclusive

They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc and competent assistants and workmen to change fit, and make such apparatus as may be required They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face Spine and Limbs, Diseased Joints Diseased Eyes Catarrh, Private Diseases Piles Fistula etc All who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to San Francisco or Indianapolis should do so at this time No cases will be taken without a fair hope of relief It is needless to say that the Institution is entirely responsible and the largest and most popular of the kind in America curing thousands annually Remember the time and place and come early Per Send to the Institute for circular

THE DREAMER

All day the white haired woman sits
Beside the open door and knits
No living thing her time can see
As busy with old memories
She dreams her dream of what has been
And knits her old time fancies in

She thinks of those who long ago
Went out across the threshold low
How many times her listening ear
Has thought familiar footsteps near
And she has started up to find
A dead leaf rustling in the wind

But never as of those who lie
Beneath the wide and tender sky
With folded hands on quiet breast,
All wrapped about with peace and rest
She thinks of them For her they tread
The green earth with her None are dead

Through years have fallen like the leaves
Above the graves where Summer weaves
Her fringed coverlet, to keep
Safe hid, from us the ones asleep;
We miss them all. Not gram nor mold
Can hide the ones she loved of old

She lives with them. When brown-winged bees
Make [illegible] in the locust trees,
She thinks as comes and sits with her
Whose voice was love's interpreter
"O dearest young again to-day,
What matter if your hair is gray?

And tells she thinks that round her knee
Her children play in happy glee
And when they tired and sleepy grow
She sings some song of long ago,
And on her loving mother-breast
She rocks her little ones to rest

Oh [illegible], knitting all the day
Your dreams in with your stitches gray,
Yours is a happy, happy heart,—
A charmed world from ours apart.
The years that turned your tresses gray
Have given you back your youth to-day

R. H. Milroy, Indian agent in Washington Territory, received the following dispatch from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs last week: "Discharge all employes except interpreters Non-appropriation Telegraph immediately amount and character of indebtedness incurred since July 1st Remain in charge, but incur no expense

The Laramie Sentinel says We are informed that orders have been issued to stop all persons and freight headed for the Black Hills, at Fort Laramie and that nothing will be allowed to pass that point. It is said the military had advices which induced them to believe it is not safe for immigrants and this action is adopted as a precautionary measure

The Seattle Intelligencer says of the crops on Puget Sound It seems that the weather this season has been propitious for crops of all kinds, though complaints came from some quarters that the potato crop had been much blighted, but we have recently learned that the potato blight will not be one half as bad as was feared some weeks since The hay was less injured by the late rains than was feared and there is no reason to doubt that the crop of the Territory will be much heavier than for some years Barley is fast maturing and is looking finely The hop crop promises well and the fruit crop will be very large. Everything promises abundant harvest

Locally there appears some increase in the activity in monetary circles and the aggregate transactions at the city banks is believed will show a larger volume during the week now opened than in any former six days for six months The demand for the purposes of the wheat traffic has set in but not to a limit and were really supplied A good deal of grain is reported ready for market but the prices prevailing in buyer's favor little inclined to sell Whatever funds may be necessary in carrying on the trade whether the crop is moved rapidly under fears of a further decline or slowly in the hope of an advance It is reported will be promptly forthcoming The present prospect is that prices will more than anything else influence the volume and movement of trade in this line the present year as tonnage will be plentiful and shippers will be able to command abundant means if the markets of demand rule at such a figure as will enable them to meet the farmers with what the latter will consider fair prices

An advance of 1 per cent. in the legal tender, some has occurred during the past thirty days the last quarter of 1c being added to day as will be seen by our quotations. This one per cent makes an addition of over half a million dollars in the wealth of the country in the matter of its paper currency alone as the national finances are reckoned but argument is unnecessary to show that the increase is entirely unreal The Comptroller of the Currency furnishes the following figures The total National Bank notes redeemed and surrendered in July was $3 401 601 during the same time there were issued of new notes $144 880 making the net decrease of bank notes outstanding during July $3 256,721 against $3,668,284 during June and $2,173 388 during May The decrease in July in greenbacks on deposit with the United States Treasurer to retire notes was $1,786,985, and there was a decrease of $153,056 in greenbacks outstanding All these items show a total decrease in active currency during July of $1,812 794 against $2,847,538 in June and $2,-675 671 in May The total available currency for circulation on August 1st was estimated at $671 948,-304 arrived at as follows

Greenbacks issues Jan 1 1877—total	$382,000 000
Bank Notes outstanding same date	351,861 450
Total	$733 861 450
Decrease to August 1, 1875	61 913 146
Total available for circulation August 1 1876	$671 948 304

Miscellaneous.

It is expected that wheat of the new crop will begin to reach this market the present week in considerable volume. As yet there has been no general movement toward selling by the farmers

The Statesman says the most of the fall wheat in Marion county is cut and threshed The grain is plump and good but the yield is far below last year In Howell Prairie, the granary of the county, the average yield is less than twenty bushels to the acre. In French Prairie, the yield is not more than twelve bushels per acre on an average The Waldo Hills the yield is better than elsewhere in this county The spring wheat will not yield more per acre than the fall wheat The oats took well, but will not come up to a full crop

Oregon bacon and hams were for a long time in rather bad repute in the San Francisco market, but of late the tide has turned in our favor judging by the quotations in an exchange of the 17th from that city in which the range of California hams is given at 15@15½ cts ₱ lb, and Oregon hams 17@20c.

The ship Garnet, Capt. Oliver from Newcastle-on-Tyne, for San Francisco has been at andoned at sea, latitude 36 30 S, longitude 79 30 W, with rudder gone and stern post split. No further details have been received. The Garnet was 1 119 tons register built in Chelsea, Massachusetts, in 1858, and hailed from Boston

The Br ship Hannibal, from this port heretofore reported by cablegram as having arrived at Liverpool, is now reported as reaching Queenstown July 29th, having lost part of her bulwarks, and had cabin and forecastle full of water The Hannibal was dispatched in March last by the Salem Flour Mills Co, and carried 60,746 bushels of wheat.

Messrs. Fraser and Hacket, two large wool growers of Umatilla county shipped their wool to parties in San Francisco to be sold on commission Together they had 60 000 pounds and report that it was sold at 17 cents per pound which they regard as a satisfactory price in the present condition of the market

There were some errors in our report of the despatching of the ship City of Sparta We will give the correct figures as soon as they are obtainable

It would seem that there will be no lack of tonnage on this coast the present year The Commercial Herald of the 17th says of the San Francisco freight market There does not appear to be any spot demand for ships suited to the wheat carrying trade. Rates are entirely nominal ship owners demanding £3 which is above the views of charterers Exporters are still busy loading ships that were long since chartered and at rates far beyond current nominal figures Tonnage is very plentiful for all voyages, with little outside business offering Thus far in the season prompt dispatch has been given to all chartered ships, and in no case has there been any default or demurrage"
